COUNT TOLSTOI writes to the Novoye Vremya that all his works dating from 1881 will be made free to be published or translated.

THE LATEST. NERHO, Mo., Oct. 5.—The preliminary trial of Terry Campbell for the murder of his five-year-old daughter near Ritchey, this county, last June, was held before Judge Crow, of Newtonia, and resulted in the acquittal of the defendant. The warrant for the arrest was sworn out by two amateur detectives, one of whom gave his name as E. M. Smith and claims to have from New York City. He is not known outside of himself, and the arrest of Campbell was an outrage, and is expressed by all who know anything about the case. His partner in the detective scheme, Woodward, lives at Sarosville, Mo., and is almost unknown. Smith first laid his case before Sheriff Featherston, who refused to issue a warrant on such testimony, whereupon he went before "Squire" Miller, of Ritchey, to the next session, and from there to "Squire" Heidridge, who issued papers and had the case set for trial at this place. The $1,000 reward is still open to the person bringing the murderer to justice.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—Mysterious press allusions have been made to a certain high personage who had intimate relations with the Gaiety actress, Miller, who recently committed suicide. These allusions were understood to refer to Prince Albert, the coroner, and a man who had been a partner in the case of Lydia Miller and refuses to allow any further access to the deposition.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—On the arrival of the limited train on the Rock Island road from Denver yesterday morning about six o'clock a body of unknown young women from Denver had either jumped off or fallen from the train to their death a short distance outside the city. The bodies were found in a pile of brush and were so badly mangled that they were not recognizable. The train was running at a high rate of speed. She was seriously ill about 200 miles west of this city and suffered very severely.

PARIS, Oct. 5.—The Journal des Debats, in an editorial on the disorders which took place in Rome Friday, protests against Italy making the incident of the memory of Garibaldi a political affair. It says that all right minded Italians are aware that a majority of Frenchmen regard the idea of the restoration of the temporal power of the pope as being also entirely chimerical.

A MUSICAL MELANGE. A YOUNG girl in France, Mlle. Dienne, has accompanied a wonderful feat, the transposition of the "Allegro de Concert," which she read at sight in a contest.

It seems that the greatest names in music, the names of Wagner, Liszt and Brahms, stand as obstacles in the way of the progress of music. Let us take Wagner, if you will, in all his compositions Wagner has given the first place to the decorative element; music, properly so called, has only the second place.

THE FREDERICK LOUIS RITTER until his death, had been director of music at Vassar college since 1867. He was a native of Strasbourg, Germany, was fifty-seven years old when he died, and had published many works on music.

FRANCISCO CURTIS, the great Italian singing teacher, lives alone in a little villa just out of Florence, where an old housekeeper and a maid attend to his needs. He has been practically retired at the age of sixty-five, and teaches but a few hours a day.

REYNOLDS is said to say "Their works"—i.e., those of Wagner, Liszt and Brahms—stand as obstacles in the way of the progress of music.
